From: Financial Times Briefing <FT@emailbriefings.ft.com>
To: ehbarak1@gmail.com
CC:
Date: Mon, 9/9/2013 3:29:04 PM
Subject: US Morning Headlines: Benign China dataadd to recovery hopes, Assad and K...

To view this email as a webpage, click here

Monday September 09 2013

US HOMEPAGE

Benign China data add to recovery hopes

Inflation data add to a growing sense that the Chinese economy is recovering and that the second half of the year should see continued growth

Assad and Kerry vie for hearts and minds

Revised data boost Japan tax calls

Peña Nieto dilutes Mexico tax reforms

China resilience reassures investors

VIDEO

Consulting a digital world

Since the start of the year Rich Lesser has been chief executive of Boston Consulting Group, one of the world's top management consultancies. The job comes with a punishing travel schedule, but it gives him a privileged view of the forces reshaping the global economy – and how business leaders need to respond if their companies are to succeed in a world of accelerating change

MARKETS

Don’t bet against Fed’s inflation quest

While deflation continues to dominate the thought process at central banks, the reality is that core inflation has bottomed, says David Rosenberg

Japan builders boosted by Olympics win

Earnings outlook hits ABF and BG Group

Europe bond rush brings in $29bn

US investors pile into European equities

WORLD NEWS

Putin ally wins Moscow mayoral race

Sergei Sobyanin won the mayoral election but Alexei Navalny, the Russian opposition leader, appeared to have exceeded expectations

Jailed Dubai debtors go on hunger strike

Abbott gets on his bike as work begins

EU pressed over Israel settlement funding

Spain tackles rising social hardship

US NEWS

Unfinished business in battle to fix the banks

FT Series: Policy makers have laboured to fix the causes of the Lehman collapse and to pre-empt the next. Have they succeeded?

US seeks final detail before taper move

Bloomberg critic leads NY mayoral race

Hague reiterates backing for US on Syria

US & CANADIAN COMPANIES

Banks set for Verizon's $20bn bond push

Wall Street lenders are tasked with finding buyers for the bonds despite market for corporate debt being sharply negative and uncertain yields

Neiman Marcus likely to be sold

Broadcom: in a narrow spot

Ex-Citi chief calls for return of bank split

Dell set to seal shareholder backing

Manage email | Forward this email | Feedback | Manage portfolio

Subscribe to the FT

Follow the FT

Unsubscribe | My Account | RSS | Privacy Policy | About Us | Help

© THE FINANCIAL TIMES LTD 2013

You have received this email because you have signed up from the NBE preference page.

This email was sent by a company owned by Pearson plc, registered office at 80 Strand, London WC2R 0RL.

Registered in England and Wales with company number 53723.